Country by Country Reporting Schedule

Basis of Preparation

The disclosures contained in this report have been prepared pursuant to the country-by-country reporting (CBCR) requirements for specified institutions¹ under the Capital Requirements Directive (CRD IV) which have been transposed into Irish legislation as Regulation 77 of Statutory Instrument 158 of 2014.

Regulation 77 requires each institution to disclose annually, specifying, by Member State and by third country in which it has an establishment, the following information on a consolidated basis for the financial year:

- a) Name(s), nature of activities and geographical location;
- b) Turnover;
- c) Number of employees on a full time equivalent basis (FTE);
- d) Profit or loss before tax;
- e) Tax on profit or loss; and
- f) Public subsidies received.

Bank of Ireland Private Banking Limited is required to comply with Regulation 77 and this report fulfils that obligation.

Bank of Ireland Private Banking Limited prepared its financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2015 under generally accepted accounting principles in Ireland ('Irish GAAP'), applying FRS 101 Reduced Disclosure Framework.

In the disclosures that follow:

1. Country of establishment is defined as the geographical location of the business unit booking the transaction.
2. Turnover comprises net interest income, net fees and commission income and other operating income.
3. The number of employees on a full time equivalent basis is shown as the average for the year.
4. The tax paid numbers disclosed under CRD IV refer to corporation tax only.
5. Tax charge includes current corporation tax expense but not deferred taxes or any provisions for uncertain tax liabilities.
6. Public subsidies are defined to be direct support by the government. They do not include any central bank operations that are designed for financial stability purposes or operations that aim to facilitate the functioning of the monetary policy transmission mechanism. Moreover, schemes in line with the European Commission's guidance on State Aid are not considered public subsidies in the context of CBCR. Furthermore, general tax incentives do not fall within the definition of public subsidy for the purposes of CBCR.

Auditors' Report

Independent Auditors' Report to the Directors of Bank of Ireland Private Banking Limited in connection with the Country by Country Reporting Schedule for the year ended 31 December 2015.

Report on the Country by Country Reporting Schedule for the year ended 31 December 2015

We have audited the accompanying financial information of Bank of Ireland Private Banking Limited for the year ended 31 December 2015 which comprises the Country by Country Reporting Schedule including the Basis of Preparation for the year ended 31 December 2015. The Country by Country Reporting Schedule for the year ended 31 December 2015 has been prepared by management of Bank of Ireland Private Banking Limited in accordance with management's basis of preparation (the 'Basis of Preparation').

Directors' responsibility for the Country by Country Reporting Schedule

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the Country by Country Reporting Schedule, for the appropriateness of the Basis of Preparation and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the Country by Country Reporting Schedule that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Country by Country Reporting Schedule based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Country by Country Reporting Schedule is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Country by Country Reporting Schedule. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Country by Country Reporting Schedule, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to Bank of Ireland Private Banking Limited's preparation of the Country by Country Reporting Schedule in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Bank of Ireland Private Banking Limited's internal controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Country by Country Reporting Schedule.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial information as included in the Country by Country Reporting Schedule for the year ended 31 December 2015 is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the Basis of Preparation.

Basis of Preparation and Restriction on Distribution

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to the Basis of Preparation. The schedule is prepared to assist the Directors to meet the requirements of Regulation 77 of Statutory Instrument 158 of 2014. As a result, the schedule may not be suitable for another purpose.

Our report is intended solely for the benefit of the directors. We do not accept or assume any responsibility or liability to any other party save where terms are agreed between us in writing.
